Bishop Graham has practised Christian healing ministry for many years. During his time as Vicar of Holy Trinity, Coventry, the church developed a large healing team which continues to operate.

While most of his experience is healing in the area of personal hurts and attitudes ('inner healing') the Bishop also has experience of physical healing and deliverance ministry. He has practised healing ministry in both formal (eg sacramental) and less formal contexts.

This Learning Healing Ministry weekend is an opportunity for people to grow in their understanding of this ministry.

The Old Grammar School is in Boarshaw Rd. opposite Bardsley St. There is limited parking at the Grammar School; more spaces at St. Leonard's Church (M24 6DE) which is off New Lane, off Long St. which is the A664 Rochdale Rd via J19 (M62) or J20 and A627(M). Walk via Clarke Brow and Bardsley St. 300 yards downhill from the church to the Old Grammar school

Learning Healing Ministry

What are the aims? What is it all about?

Aims of the Weekend

- To gain some understanding of Christian healing ministry in the light of the Bible and present day experience
- To practise the ministry of praying for people using the laying on of hands
- To learn from the experience of others
- To encourage churches to form teams offering healing ministry

About the weekend

The church is rediscovering the importance of prayer for healing and experience shows that it is effective. The instructions that Jesus gave to his disciples to preach the Kingdom of God and heal the sick gives grounds for regarding healing as one of the basic tasks of the church.

There are important questions to be answered about who should perform this ministry, what training they need and what their relationship should be to the medical and counselling professions.

Participants need to be ready to receive healing ministry for themselves during the weekend; this may relate to areas of emotional hurts as well as physical problems. It is also important the participants are available for the whole course.

Learning Healing Ministry

Who is it for? What does it cost?

Who can come?

The weekend is intended for members of the Anglican church but is open to members of other churches. It is for those who wish to explore the practice of healing ministry, provided that their participation is supported by their parish priest or minister whose signature is required. This is to ensure that the development of personal ministry takes place under the authority of the local church.

Participants must commit themselves for the whole programme. The bishops of the Diocese of Manchester have given the weekend their full support.

How much does it cost?

The cost is £20 per person.

Cheques should be made payable to:
Bishop Graham Dow and sent to Mrs. Lee Leech (see overleaf for address).

Please advise her of any specific Dietary Requirements or special needs (eg wheelchair access).

Where is the course held?

The weekend will take place at
The Old Grammar School, Boarshaw Road,
Middleton M24 6BR. This is close to Middleton Parish Church (St. Leonard's)
